About the conference

The AICPA & CIMA Dealership Conference offers a comprehensive education on topics affecting accounting and finance professionals at all types of dealerships, including auto, truck, motorcycle, boat, ATV, and RV. It continues to be one of the only conferences featuring in-depth discussions on accounting, auditing, tax, legislation and political issues facing the profession.

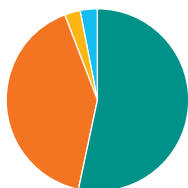

There are many opportunities to network with other professionals from across the country, affording you the unparalleled opportunity to showcase your products and services.
